Nebogatoff? He got off with his life.

Most everybody remembers that it was Admiral Cervera whom Admiral Schley cleaned up at Santiago but few will recall that it was Admiral Montijo who was dealt with so severely at Manila by Admiral Dewey.

It has leaked out that Vice President Fairbanks has two brothers who are master plumbers. We do not know whether the report is true or not that the Vice President is cold natured enough to freeze the pipes.

A Charlotte street car conductor went to Peachland the other day and got married, so the Observer says. His friends can hope he got a peach, and that matrimony won't get him off his trolley.

"Why is it," says a Chicago University professor, "that a man can't stand for anybody to tickle him in the short ribs?" Ever since Adam fell into a deep sleep and one of his ribs was removed for the purpose of making him a side partner, men are particular about being touched in what was Adam's tender spot.

In view of Togo's utter destruction of a large fleet than his own in the battle in the Korean Straits, it is a waste of time to talk to the nations about letting up in naval construction. Germany has already suddenly determined to increase the size of her new battleships, authorized under her new naval programme from 13,200 tons to 16,000 tons, so as to equal the American and British displacements.

We may as well acknowledge the corn. As long as nations are jealous of each other or mistrust each other, there will be a rivalry as to which shall be the greater sea power. It will certainly mean bankruptcy for some of the powers in their determination to have navies that will make them feel safe. The latest naval battle is but an incentive to the powers to build more and stronger ships. When Congress meets President Roosevelt will have all the backing he wants for a navy big enough to "guarantee peace."

PRETTY ENTERTAINMENT

Sunbeam Club Gave Delightful Production Last Night For Benefit of Sorosis Public Library.

To an audience which taxed the capacity of the theatre and which was nothing, if not appreciative, the Sunbeam Club of Miss Alderman's Select School last night presented in the Academy of Music the bright little play "The Magic Bell," for the benefit of the Sorosis Public Library. The first part consisted of a salutatory by Miss Lucile McKracken and a "Reuben and Rachel Pantomime and Drill." The "Reubens" were Messrs. Milton Gore, James Wade, Charles Terry and Ernest Grant while the "Rachels" were Misses Beck Love Johnson, Rosa Belle Kirkham, Kate Myers, Bessie Sears, Sadie Booker and Lilly Post.

The play itself told an interesting and pretty little story centred about "The Magic Bell" and the various parts were taken as follows:

SENSATION IN COURT

CHARGED WITH AN ASSAULT

Claims In Extenuation That He Was Defending Good Name of His Family—Two Killings Investigated Before Judge Allen.

A mild sensation was sprung in Superior Court here yesterday morning when Judge Oliver H. Allen, presiding at this term, sentenced to jail, without alternative, for two months, Mr. Robert C. Orr, a well known young machinist employed at the Cape Fear Machine Works, in this city, he having just submitted, through his attorney, Walter P. Gafford, Esq., to a rather serious assault upon Mr. A. P. Yopp, lately master mechanic in the same shops in which Mr. Orr is employed. The assault occurred about ten days ago, near the Seaboard Air Line depot, Mr. Yopp alleging that Mr. Orr waylaid him as he was returning from work and Mr. Orr allegeing that he was justified in making the assault because of some remarks Mr. Yopp had made concerning the defendant's family. Mr. Yopp was severely beaten about the face and auffered a fracture of the rib. He said that he offered to confront those persons who had told Mr. Orr, of the remarks but that his assailant declined the offer and repudiated the denial, preferring to believe those who had brought him the evil report. Mr. Yopp is now employed at the plant of the Hydraulic White Brick Co., and claims that Mr. Orr secreted himself behind a box car and jumped upon him before he had time to take account of his surroundings. He was laid up in bed a week as the result of the injuries he received and was only able to appear against Mr. Orr this week at the preliminary trial before Justice Furlong to whom Mr. Orr submitted and was bound over to the higher court, the assault being held as one in which serious injury was done; therefore, not within the jurisdiction of the magistrate's court.

In the Superior Court yesterday morning, Mr. Gafford appeared for Mr. Orr and Hon. Jno. D. Bellamy for Mr. Yopp. In submitting the case, the defendant waived a bill and expected a nominal fine. However, counsel for Mr. Yopp set up that the real cause of the trouble was because Mr. Yopp, while foreman of the machine shops, had discharged a brother of the defendant. On the other hand Mr. Orr stoutly averred that the assault was purely for the vindication of the good name of his family and that he acted only as any other man would have done. Judge Allen was not disposed to condone the offence and he imposed a sentence of two months confinement in jail upon Mr. Orr. Immediately attorneys were on their feet protesting against a punishment so severe. Judge Allen refused to change the sentence. The point was then raised that the grand jury had not acted upon the case and, therefore, an appeal was taken upon that ground. Judge Allen did not know of the waiving of a bill, the arrangement having been made by consent among the attorneys and the solicitor. That phase of the question having presented itself to His Honor, he immediately ordered the judgment of two months erased and the entry made that the defendant be held under bond of $500 until the case could be sent down to the grand jury and come back to the court in regular order. Mr. Orr immediately gave the $500 bond with Mr. Chas. W. Worth, president of the Cape Fear Machine Works, as surety.

Solicitor Duffy at once prepared a bill against Mr. Orr and sent it down to the grand jury, which returned it "true." The case will probably come up for trial to-day and its outcome will be watched with peculiar interest.

Negro Killing Investigated.

Practically all of yesterday's session of the court was taken up with the trial of John Bishop, colored, charged with being an accessory to the murder of Wiley Kelly, the negro killed at the merry-go-round near Sixth and Campbell streets about six weeks ago, the particulars of which are well remembered by the public. The negro John Read, charged with the actual homicide, through his attorney, Walter P. Gafford, Esq., submitted to manslaughter. After an all-day hearing, Bishop was found guilty only of an assault with a deadly weapon, the jury having returned the verdict, after three hours deliberation, at 9:30 o'clock last night. Neither of the prisoners has been sentenced. George L. Peschau, Esq., appeared for Bishop and made a manful defence for his client. Mr. Peschau said last night that he would probably take the case up on an appeal as he is quite confident of the prisoner's innocence. However, the verdict last night is generally regarded as a victory for the defence.

It will be remembered that Bishop was engineer at the bobby horses and that the negro who was killed was drinking and persistently blew the engine whistle. When Bishop remonstrated with him about his misconduct, Kelly assaulted him with a brick and ran, Bishop firing after him. Subsequently other shots were fired and witnesses say they were from a pistol in the hands of Read, who submitted to manslaughter. Judgment will be pronounced on the prisoners to-day.

Court opened as usual at 9:30 A. M. yesterday and of the regular talesmen drawn for the day, the sheriff returned as summoned six of the number and as not found: W. E. Powell, Frank George, Geo. J. McClammy, E. H. Freeman, T. C. Davis, W. J. Croswell, Jr., W. E. Sellars, G. P. Willoughby and T. M. Emerson. Of the 35 special venire drawn for the day, 20 were returned as summoned and 15 were returned as not found as follows: H. C. Blake, L. W. Strickland, D. M. Carroll, Wm. Flanagan, John J. Jordan, G. W. Casteen, F. W. Kerchner, J. H. Hancock, John H. Hardee, W. A. Erwin, J. S. Jordan, W. S. McPhatter, D. F. Klein, J. E. Hatch and John F. Brown. Messrs. W. C. Boesch and T. C. McIlhenny were excused.

The grand jury will meet in final session to-day. The court will adjourn for the term this afternoon.

The following is the official entry in the case of Easie Simmons, colored, tried earlier in the week and concerning which an error occurred in the press reports of the proceedings a few days ago:

"Easie Simmons, colored, larceny; sentenced to 12 months in the county jail with leave to the County Commissioners to hire her out to G. W. Britt, the proceeds to be appropriated to the payment of the costs, an agreement to be had as to her wages and after Mr. Britt has been refunded for the costs paid by him, then the wages to be paid to her."

ANNUAL POLICE EXCURSION.

Wilmington "Finest" Preparing For Big Day on June 27th.

Members of the police department are making arrangements for their second annual excursion and outing at Carolina Beach, which will be enjoyed this year on Tuesday, June 27th. The following committee has everything in charge. Messrs. H. W. Howell (chairman), R. L. Truelove, G. R. Holt, Henry Ottoway and W. C. Moore. The committee met last night and began their preliminary survey of the field. A rare programme of attractions will be offered in the way of pistol practice and laughable contests of every kind which made the excursion last year such a fine success. The programme will be published later.

The members of the force would appreciate highly the donation of any prizes the business men of the city may see fit to provide for the various contests. The public is invited to "take in" the excursion with the force and a pleasant day is assured.

Handsome Insurance Offices.

Capt. J. VanB. Metts yesterday removed into his handsome new insurance offices, No. 109 Princess street. The place has been thoroughly overhauled and nicely repainted and everything has been so conveniently arranged as to give Capt. Metts one of the best offices in the city. He represent 18 of among the safest and most reliable life and fire insurance companies in the world and also does a large business in plate glass, boiler, employers' liability, sick, accident and plumber's insurance. Capt Metts' 'phone remains 162 and he would be pleased to answer all inquiries from his new office and would be delighted for his friends to call on him there.

The lot fronts 66 feet on Third street and runs back into the block 119 1-2 feet, adjoining the Holmes estate. The property although in a residential section, brought nearly $100 per front foot, giving another example of the value of real estate in Wilmington. The property purchased by Mr. Penton is very eligibly located and the residence is one of the prettiest of its size in the city.

Rev. Fred. D. Hale, D. D., will leave this morning for Raleigh where he will deliver on Sunday night at the Tabernacle Baptist church the missionary address before the Missionary Society of the Baptist University for Women. He was landed in jail for trial before Justice Bornemann at 10 o'clock this morning.

IMPORTANT CAPTURE

Arrest of Bold Negro Storebreakers Who Operated Early Thursday Night

ONE GAVE EXCITING CHASE

Same One Made Daring Attempt to Escape City Prison—Pillaged Mr. R. A. Montgomery's Place on Princess Street.

Through the splendid offices of Police Sergeant C. S. Burnett and Policeman Leon George, the Department made two important arrests of storebreakers yesterday, one of whom, no doubt conscious of his guilt and desperate because of his capture, made a bold attempt to escape from the city prison last night, giving the hall officers the first real sensation since the beginning of the new administration.

The prisoners are Sam Long and George Boney, both young negroes of good parentage but of decidedly bad police record. They are charged with breaking into the store of Mr. R. A. Montgomery, No. 720 Princess street, night before last and the larceny of a quantity of goods which they took away in a push cart, stolen from a nearby repair shop. The robbery was discovered when Mr. Montgomery came down to open up yesterday morning about 6 o'clock and an hour later, Sergeant Burnett had one of the robbers in the station house and a confession from him implicating his pal, to whom suspicion at once pointed when Long was arrested, the two negroes being almost inseparable. Before noon Sergeant Burnett and Policeman George were engaged in an exciting chase after Boney, capturing him with difficulty half an hour later and landing him in the station house with Long.

The robbery was a daring one as the store-breakers worked by the light of a lantern. Persons in the neighborhood thought the noise about the premises was by Mr. Montgomery himself, as the hour was before midnight. Entrance was effected by splitting a window sill at the side of the store and removing the heavy iron bars that protected the opening. Once inside the negroes opened the back door, drew up the push cart from the adjoining shop and began pillaging the place. The safe was tried, but not opened. The knob and combination were knocked off but the thieves could go no further. They then proceeded to load the cart with a crate of 30 dozen eggs, half dozen or more hams, several boxes of tobacco, snuff, cigars, etc. They then boldly carted the stuff to a negro shop, near Tenth and Dock streets, and from there they at once went to peddling the goods about the streets. At Fifth and Grace a housewife bought 10 dozen of the eggs for $1.25 and gave the negro a $10 bill to go and get the change. The negro left the cart and eggs in the yard and disappeared with the money. Sergeant Burnett traced the negro to Tenth and Dock and there arrested Sam Long with a lot of the stolen goods. In his cell in the city prison Long implicated Boney but tried to clear his own skirts by saying that while he stood watch, Boney committed the robbery. Policeman E. L. Smith and Sergeant Burnett spent some time searching for Boney down town but later Sergeant Burnett and Policeman George located him in a house back of the Walker Memorial Hospital. The negro ran like a deer at the approach of the officers. But the officers were sprinters themselves and succeeded in keeping in close pursuit for the distance of a mile through the swamps to the northeast of the city. They emptied their revolvers at the negro in a vain effort to stop him, but not once did he let up. When Smith's Creek was reached, the negro plunged in and waded in the water to his arm pits. Officer George followed him in the water and there in mid-stream a lively scuffle ensued, the officer being forced to use the butt of his pistol on the obstreperous thief. The officers returned to the city with their prisoner as wet as the proverbial rat and thoroughly exhausted. The negroes will be given trial in the police court to-day at noon. Both have been before the court before, one having been charged with larceny from Gaylord's store and the other at a different time, with stealing chickens.

The negro Boney made a bold attempt to escape from the city prison last night about 10 o'clock and all but succeeded. Reaching his hands through the wood grating of his cell, the negro picked up in the corridor a piece of cast iron, broken at one end. With that rather blunt instrument he succeeded in picking one of the 2x2 wood bars in two and through the aperture he crawled into the corridor. Then he began with the same instrument to dig under the floor, through the brick wall, on the south side of the building. Turnkey John Dew, who has charge of the prisoners, heard a grating sound and hurried to the door of the row of cells and peered in. He was surprised to find the negro in the corridor and, not knowing how far his plans for escape had materialized, gave the alarm to Capt. George Smith and Sergeant C. W. Woolard, who were seated with Dr. Bell, the coroner, in front of the building. Dr. Bell with the rest hastily jerked up pistols and ran around to all possible places of escape to head the prisoner off. However, Boney had been discovered too soon by the vigilant turnkey and when the officers went again into the prison Boney had gone out of the corridor, crawled back through the hole and was found coiled up in his hammock, feigning sleep as if nothing had occurred.

AFFAIRS OF PUBLIC IMPORT

The Board of Health met in regular monthly session yesterday afternoon at the City Hall. Those present were Mayor A. M. Waddell, presiding; Dr. C. T. Harper, superintendent of health and clerk of the Board; Mr. P. Matthew, city engineer; Dr. T. S. Burbank and Mr. M. W. Jacobi.

Perhaps the most important action taken at the meeting of the Board was the passage of an order, declaring all sewer connections with Jacob's Run a nuisance and ordering property owners concerned to abate the nuisance at once. More than 100 private sewers empty into the run, which is city property, and extends from the rear of the jail triangularly across the blocks, emptying into the river near Dock street. The action of the Board of Health means that many property owners will have to find other connections for their sewers.

Another important matter, which was brought up by Mr. Jacobi, was a recommendation to the Board of Aldermen that the city establish as early as possible a crematory for disposing of city garbage. The present arrangements are very unsatisfactory and the action of the Board of Health is expected to accentuate the efforts of the Sanitary Committee of the Aldermen, which is already investigating the crematory proposition.

Still another important matter was the appointment of Dr. Burbank, Mr. Jacobi and Mr. Matthew as a committee to call upon the railroad and trolley line officials and urge upon them the absolute necessity of providing some public conveniences for the large number of excursionists who visit the city each Summer. It is presumed that the committee will act at once as the excursion season is already here and many visitors are coming into the city daily.

It was ordered that the Superintendent of Health visit all quarantined smallpox cases often and see that the quarantine regulations are enforced. There are now only about 10 cases of smallpox in the pest house and practically none quarantined in the city.

The plumbing ordinance, providing for a system of sanitary plumbing inspection, was sent over to the Board of Aldermen with the recommendation that it be passed. It is the same ordinance which was recommended to the former Board and which was "talked to death."

The monthly report of the Superintendent of Health showed during May: 35 death, 7 of the decedents being white and 28 colored; 62 births, 23 white and 39 colored. The health officers made 3,107 inspections; did 85 fumigations; 475 lime and acid orders were issued for disinfecting purposes; trash carts removed 1,089 loads of trash; 13 quarantines were established for smallpox, one for scarlet fever and one for typhoid fever.

Saturday Morning, June 3.

RIVAL REPUBLICAN DAILIES

There are indications of a hot fight between factions seeking to control the Republican party in North Carolina. The differences were recntly accentuated by the announced intention of Congressman E. Spencer Blackburn and associates to publish a Republican daily paper at Greensboro, with a view, it is asserted, to advocate Republican principles and build up that party in North Carolina.

No sooner, however, was it made known that Blackburn and his friends would start a daily than up bobs former Populist Senator Marion Butler, now a Republican, backed by Republican State Chairman Thos. S. Rollins, who make it known that they will establish an "indepndent industrial daily." Of course, nobody will be fooled by a paper masquerading as "independent" but it is so much like the Butler tactics to get up a ruse to better fool the people. However, the fact that two factions are rivaling each other in their haste to start dailies is so much like North Carolina Republicans, and it will not only amuse the Democrats but serve to show Republicans that the patriots who are so anxious to publish daily papers "for the good of the party," really seem by the power of printers' ink to secure control of the party. It is pretty safe to say that it is not what the Blackburn or the Butler-Rollins factions can make of the Republican party but what they can make out of it. We confess, however, to being a little confused over the situation which is thus described by the Raleigh Post of last Thursday:

Two companies were yesterday incorporated to publish dialy Republican morning papers in the city of Greensboro.

On one side stands State Chairman T. S. Rollins, represented by ex-Judge S. B. Adams, with The Industrial Publishing Company and on the other hand there is Congressman E. Spencer Blackburn with his Tar Heel Publishing Company.

Both assert that their companies propose to establish a Republican daily in Greensboro and underneath these statements the shrewd politician reads a clean declaration of war between the present office holders and the faction headed by the young congressman who won his seat from the Eighth district.

For months, in fact since the election last November, the political atmasphere has been laden with rumors of a clash for control of the patronage between the State chairman and the only Republican member of Congress from North Carolina. At last the issue seems to have come to a head in the race to establish a Republican daily paper in this State.

The afternon train from Greensboro yesterday brought two distinguished politicians. One was ex-Judge Spencer B. Adams, of Greensboro, armed with articles of incorporation for his paper for which State Chairman T. S. Rollins is one of the promoters and largest subscribers to the capital stock, and the other was no less a person than Congressman Blackburn with his typewritten papers for filing with the Secretary of State to incorporate the Tar Heel Publishing Company. Both companies are to issue a daily at Greensboro.

"We shall organize the Industrial Publishing Company next week and immediately complete our plans for the publication of a Republican daily in Greensboro," declared Judge Adams, who was the first to take out his papers at 8:30 o'clock last night. "It will be the spokesman of no faction but will have a purpose single to the upbuilding of the Republican party in North Carolina," was his emphatic declaration.

"I am with the people of North Carolina," declared Congressman Blackburn in his room at the Yarborough late last night after his Tar Heel Publishing Company had been incorporated shortly after 9 o'clock. "All the office holders do not wish to serve for life and a few cannot control the State any longer. All we want is a square deal and the people will not longer submit to the arbitrary domination of a few men because they happen to hold federal positions. So far as the attitude of our Republican State chairman is concerned I do not wish to say any thing. My only wish is to have the Republican party the majority party in North Carolina."

A charter was issued in the office of the Secretary of State for the Industrial Publishing Company, of Greensboro, with capital of $50,000 authorized and $10,000 of this subscribed. This was secured last night by Judge S. B. Adams, of Greensboro.

The incorporators are Republican State Chairman Thomas S. Rollins, of Asheville; United States District Attorney A. E. Holton, of Winston; Postmaster C. A. Reynolds, of Winston; J. Elwood Coxe, of High Point; H. C. Carver, of Statesville; Postmaster Tyre Glenn, of Greensboro; Ex-Attorney General R. D. Douglas, Clerk of the Federal Court S. L. Trogden, and A. M. Millican, of Greensboro; United States District Attorney Harry Skinner, of Greenville; United States Marshal H. C. Dockery, of Raleigh; United States Collector E. C. Duncan, of Beaufort, and ex-Judge Spencer B. Adams, of Grensboro. The latter came here to procure the charter. The company proposes to begin at once the publication of a State Republican daily paper in Greensboro. Organization will, Judge Adams says, be perfected next week.

"There are many other stockholders whose names do not appear in the articles of agreement," said Judge Adams. "We only used the names of those who could be reached in time and make the necessary affidavit." The judge was emphatic in his statement that the paper would be the spokesman of no faction of the party but would work for the upbuilding of that political faith in the State. He expects to begin publication this Summer. One of the subscribers is authority for the statement that arrangements have been made for the service of the Associated Press. The name of ex-United States Senator Marion Butler does not appear in the papers incorporating this company. However, for several weeks he has been sending out letters from Washington in the interest of having a daily Republican paper in the State. His law partner, Mr. R. H. McNeill, has been also interested in the movement.

Just an hour later Congressman Spencer Blackburn visited the office of the Secretary of State and had his company incorporated. It is called the Tar Heel Publishing Company of Greensboro with $50,000 capital authorized and over $25,000 subscribed in shares of the par value of $25 each. Many of the subscribers are well known men. "The object of this company," said Mr. Blackburn, "is not to promote the interests of any individual but to give to the people of North Carolina such news service and political doctrine as they are entitle to. The list of incorporators is really too long to be enumerated in full."

Here is a partial list of those who are incorporators in the enterprise as taken from the official papers: H. L. Grant, of Goldsboro, B. N. Duke, of Durham, W. I. Holt, of Burlington, C. J. Harris, of Dillsboro, J. L. Morgan, of Marion, R. B. Sams, of Marshall, L. C. Wagoner, of Statesville, M. L. Bean, of Salisbury, R. D. Laws, of Moravian Falls, R. A. Mills, of Winston, W. T. Brien, of Durham, J. W. Hastey, of Monroe, R. H. Harden, of Wilkesboro, C. D. Blalock, of Hickory, J. H. Ramsey, of Salisbury, J. W. C. Long, of Statesville, W. A. Bailey, of Advance, Jno. W. Brown, of Mooresville, B. S. Robinson, of Haw River, G. L. Patterson, of Concord, J. D. Dorsett, of Spencer, T. M. McCoy, of Asheville, J. Y. Hamrick, of Shelby, J. H. Quinn, of Shelby and many others.

After returning to Greensboro Thursday night Congressman Blackburn gave out this statement:

"Please announce for me that there is no foolishness in the proposotion of Republicans to establish a daily newspaper which will give the news and represent our cause in the State. What is meant by the charter procured through Mr. Butler's activity for an industrial independent paper I do not know. The solicitation sent out by him and McNeill asked for subscriptions to the North State Publishing Company. Judge Adams upon his arrival in Raleigh last night, after conference with certain gentlemen, I am advised, decided that Mr. Butler's connection prominently would not be of much advantage and the name was changed to the industrial. The whole scheme is a deception from the start. Judge Adams stated in my presence in my room at the Yarborough last night that if Butler had anything to do with the matter he would repudiate the whole business, while Mr. Rollins writes me that he has subscribed for the paper being organized by R. H. McNeill, Spence Adams and Marion Butler. I solicited Mr. Rollins to subscribe to a Republican paper before leaving for Mexico, but he did not subscribe. I have endeavored in every possible way to promote harmony in our ranks since my election, forgiving the action of the leading Republican officials in trying to secure my defeat in the recent election, but seemingly to no purpose. The Republican party in this State is entitled to fair treatment and honest dealing, from its leaders—certainly from its chronic beneficiary, and so far as I am concerned they shall have it. I am informed that Mr. Rollins has agreed to furnish $10,000 to Mr. Butler's independent industrial paper and letters have already and are now being written to postmasters with the signature of State Chairman Rollins asking a contribution which he says is to pay the indebtedness of the last campaign. Why the matter has been delayed until this time somebody will have to explain. I shall do as I have done in the past—stand with the Republican party and endeavor to promote its interests by fighting with the rank and file. A few designing men have sought to destroy me and the party for so doing, but the people, especially the boys in the trenches, will see that there is fair dealings hereafter in the party.

"It is signified that the Butler industrial independent organ is composed exclusively of Federal office-holders who desire to retain their jobs. I have been with Mr. Rollins unreservedly up to this time, but if he proposes now to sacrifice to the selfish ends of a few men who have grown rich in office and disregard the people and precipitate a fight upon me, I accept the issue and the people shall decide. They are entitled to a square deal and so far as I am concerned, shall have it. The Republican party will have a Republican paper and it is a matter of indifference to us how many industrial independent papers may be organized by those whose politics no one knows."

COTTON MARKETS.

New York, June 2.—The cotton market ruled active and weak all day, with the government cotton crop report as the feature. The opening was weak at a decline of 8 to 23 points under selling for both accounts, chiefly in expectation of a bearish government report at noon but also encouraged by the lower cables and excellent weather in the South. Before the government report was issued prices had reached a net loss of about 19 to 21 points. The report was followed by increased pressure after some little hesitation, caused, it was said, by a misapprehension of the report in New Orleans. The local market was very unsettled all the afternoon and while final prices were termed steady they were just about the lowest for the session or a net decline of 31 to 34 points. Sales futures were estimated at 750,000 bales.

The government acreage report estimated the acreage planted to May 25th, and local traders, in view of reports by private parties that some area remained to be seeded on that date in the western belt, took the ground that the ultimate acreage would slightly exceed the government figures. The condition figure, while larger than looked for, is the lowest on record of recent years, with the exception of 1903 when a June condition of 74.1 was reported.

Truths that Strike Home

Your grocer is honest and—if he cares to do so—can tell you that he knows very little about the bulk coffee he sells you. How can he know, where it originally came from, how it was blended—or with what—or when roasted? If you buy your coffee loose by the pound, how can you expect purity and uniform quality?

LION COFFEE, the LEADER OF ALL PACKAGE COFFEES, is of necessity uniform in quality, strength and flavor. For OVER A QUARTER OF A CENTURY, LION COFFEE has been the standard coffee in millions of homes.

LION COFFEE is carefully packed at our factories, and until opened in your home, has no chance of being adulterated, or of coming in contact with dust, dirt, germs, or unclean hands.

In each package of LION COFFEE you get one full pound of Pure Coffee. Insist upon getting the genuine. (Lion head on every package.)

DISCRIMINATING LADIES.

Enjoy Using Herpicide on Account of Its Distinctiveness.

The ladies who have used Newbro's Herpicide speak of it in the highest terms, for its quick effect in cleansing the scalp of dandruff and also for its excellence as a general hair-dressing. It makes the scalp feel fresh and it allays that itching which dandruff will cause. Newbro's Herpicide effectively cures dandruff, as it destroys the germ that causes it. The same germ causes hair to fall out, and later baldness; in killing it, Herpicide stops falling hair and prevents baldness. It is also an ideal hair dressing, for it lends an aristocratic charm to the hair that is quite distinctive. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

—The Lula Cotton Mills, of King's Mountain, have just started up 3,000 new spindles The Lula makes lace cotton yarns.

—Mr. Alfred Reinhardt, representing Bains & Co. of Alexander, Egypt, was in Charlotte Wednesday, the guest of Mr. C. B. Bryant. Mr. Reinhardt's concern deals in long-staple Egyptian cotton, and he is over here visiting the mills that use it.

—Since the storm Wednesday, reports have come in from five miles north and northwest of Pittsboro, saying the cotton and wheat were completely demolished and wiped off the fact of the earth by the hail. On Mr. M. T. William's farm, two miles north of town, not a vestige of the cotton or corn crop was left. The same reports come from several other farms in the same section. It is too late to re-plant the cotton crop, and all the labor on it is a total loss.

—The issuance of a charter Wednesday by the Secretary of State for the Greensboro Fire Insurance Company, with $100,000 capital stock, makes the fifth fire insurance corporation now doing business from Greensboro, and having their headquarters there. The incorporators of this last company are among the city's most conservative and wealthy bankers, merchants, capitalists and insurance experts. Besides the five fire companies there are now three life insurance companies organized and doing successful business in Greensboro.

—Charlotte Observer, June 2: Mr. and Mrs. James C. McGill, of York city, came in last night from Asheville, by way of Spartanburg, and are stopping at the Buford, for two or three days. They made the trip from Asheville in a "White Touring Car," and expect to go on to New York by way of Salisbury and Greensboro. Touring home in an automobile has proved very popular this year with Northern visitors and next year will find many of them stopping over in Charlotte at our elegant new hotel. Two parties returned to New York State from Southern Pines, and two from Savannah, Ga.

—Charlotte Observer: Two Republican daily papers at Greensboro are projected. One of the projects is engineered by Representative Blackburn, the other by the element of the Republican party which is opposed to him, this element headed by State Chairman Rollins. The factions may be broadly classified as the outs and the ins. If one may assume that there is any sense at all in either of the divisions, it may be assumed further that they will get together on the newspaper question and that there will be put one paper, or, what would be wiser still, none. There is not a legitimate living in North Carolina for one Republican daily paper, much less two, and Greensboro is no field for a morning paper of any party.

—A dispatch from Concord on Wednesday says: Last night between midnight and 2 o'clock, professional burglars entered the store of Cook & Fell and C. G. Hellig, of Mount Pleasant, a town nine miles east of here, and blew open their safes with nitro-glycerine. At the former store they got about $200 in money and at the latter between $300 and $400. The robbery was not known until this morning, and the burglars escaped, leaving no clue to follow them. They started off on a horse belonging to Mr. L. Lentz, but soon left this and took a mule of Col. Boger's and rode this to the edge of Concord, where its was turned loose. The owner, missing the mule, followed and found it about daylight. The officers are using every means to detect the burglars.

—"Charlotte's new hotel is to be much more complete than many suppose," says a prominent citizen of Charlotte. "Within the building is to be a large convention hall that will be of sufficient size to accommodate any assembly that meets in the State. The fittings will be of the latest design and the equipment complete in every detail. This will add much to the hotel and city, for Charlotte hereafter need have no hesitancy in inviting such gatherings as the Bankers' Association, the Press Association and other similar bodies. The hotel itself will furnish ample accommodations for both entertainment and deliberation. The hotel will own and operate an individual ice plant and every other convenience will be had. A telegraph office, local and long distance telephone booths, the largest and most complete news stand in the Carolinas, in fact, everything that will contribute to the comfort of the guests, will be found in the building. Charlotte's new hotel will be in keeping with the city." The work will begin shortly. A large loby will be one of the most attractive features of the hotel. There will be 75 rooms with baths, and 150 rooms in all.

—Lexington Dispatch: The Dispatch made the charges that illicit distilleries were being run in Boone township, and maintains that these charges were true at the time. Nat Crump, who attempted to assassinate Grubb and Thompson, is said to have been conducting one of these distilleries—and there were others. The Sheriff's posse while hunting Crump Monday a week ago ran across a distillery outfit bearing evidence of recent operation. A few days before the charge was printed that distilleries were being run in Boone, certain revenue officers were in Lexington and the chief of police of the town went to the officers and informed them of these distilleries and told one of the officers where he could find at least one illicit outfit. If any action whatever was taken by reason of this information we have yet to learn of it. Just why the sheriff of Davidson county, didn't endeavor to put a stop to the business, we don't know. He is an intelligent gentleman and certainly ought to be versed in the laws he has sworn to execute. Possibly he did not know the distilleries existed: if he didn't The Dispatch dosen't undertake to say why. That they did exist and that it was a matter of current knowledge in Lexington and sections of the county, cannot be denied.

John Doe X His Mark

A man's mark is his honor. It stands for him and he stands for it. It's the old Saxon way of signifying good intentions.

The right to be protected in the exclusive use of a trade mark has been long recognized by the common law and enforced by the chancery courts of England and this country.

The National Biscuit Company puts its trade mark in red and white on each end of a package of biscuit, crackers and wafers to distinguish these products and to guarantee the quality, and it does.

To more clearly comprehend the real value of this trade mark, try packages of BUTTER THIN BISCUIT and LEMON SNAPS.

TESTS PATIENCE.

The Most Patient Wilmington Citizen Must Show Annoyance at Times.

Nothing spoils a good disposition,
Nothing tazes a man's patience,
Like any itchiness of the skin.
Itching Piles almost drive you crazy.
All day it makes you miserable,
All night it keeps you awake,
Itch! Itch! Itch! with no relief.
Just the same with Eczema.
Can hardly keep from scratching it.
You would do so, but you know it makes it worse.
Such miseries are daily decreasing.
People are learning they can be cured.
Learning the merits of Doan's Ointment.
Plenty of proof that Doan's Ointment will cure Piles, Eczema or any itchiness of the skin.
Read the testimony of a Wilmington citizen.

H. Cronenberg, Photographer, of 119½ Market streets, says: "I used Doan's Ointment, and it did its work promptly and permanently. I had a rash all over me, and no one knows how I suffered. It was like being in the infernal region and I could get no relief. I did not dare scratch, because that made it worse. I tried everything but only to be disappointed. Some one told me about Doan's Ointment and I procured a box at R. R. Bellamy's drug store. I went home and applied some of the ointment, and I can say it brought the first relief I had had for a long time. I only add that it is a preparation of great merit."

WARM WIRELETS.

At San Francisco, last night Hanlon got the decision at the end of the 20th round in his fight with Young Corbett.

The steamboat H. M. Carter, it is reported, ran into the pier of the railroad bridge across Red river at Alexandria, La., at 10:30 last night and sank. Sixteen lives were lost.

Miss Thompson, the English woman, who on Thursday, defeated Miss Margaret Curtis of Massachusetts, won the International Golf Championship at Cromer, Eng. yesterday, defeating Miss Stuart, of Ireland.

At Conyers, Ga., yesterday Will Sims, a negro, was hanged for the murder of his wife last April. He objected to any effort to secure a pardon or commutation of sentence for him, saying he was ready to die.

At Albany, Ga., Peter Thomas, a negro murdered of Marshal John Manliere, of Pretoria, a small town near Albany, was hanged yesterday. The father, mother and sister of the dead Marshal witnessed the execution.

Indictments against thirty men have been drawn, as a result of the evidence secured by the Federal grand jury in its two month's hearing of witnesses in connection with an investigation of the methods of the meat packing industries at Chicago.

In New York the feature of the dry goods market at present is the advancing prices of cotton and woolen goods. Cotton goods are higher than they were a week ago and woolen manufacturers are adding from 5 to 15c. to the prices of most fabrics.

—A great storm which has swept over Pinetown, Cape Colony, Natal, the center of the sugar plantations of Natal, caused the reservoir to overflow, resulting in the drowning of 200 Hindoo laborers. The storm resulted in numerous casualties elsewhere.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company will shortly establish the fastest long distance train in the world. It will be a new limited between New York and Chicago, and will make the run in each direction in eighteen hours. The new train will be established to meet the increasing demand for faster service between the chief commonwealths of the country.

Details of the earthquare at Scutari, Albinia show that 100 persons were killed, and 250 injured and that the town has been completely devastated. There were two shocks. The inhabitants are now living in the open, while the foreign consuls have been provided with tents. The authorities have organized parties to search for the bodies of victims. It is feared that the list of casualties will be considierably increased.

.t Columbia, S. C., yesterday State Chemist Burney found arsenic in the remnants of a cabbage dinner which was given to the prisoners in the State prison, which made over one hundred of them ill, while Superintendent Griffith discovered traces of Paris green on the window still of the kitchen. The men are now out of danger. Suspicion points strongly to one of the convicts as having poisoned the food heretofore.

James Hope, otherwise known as "Jmmmy" Hope, leader of the band which robbed the Manhattan Bank in New York city of about $3,000,000 in money and securities, nearly thirty years ago, is dead at his home in New York. His wife said yesterday that he died of grief—broken hearted because of the publicity which constantly kept his record aive. Hope was known as the last of the old-time safe breakers. He was born in Philadelphia 69 years ago.

NORTH CAROLINA CROPS.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 2.—The State Department of Agriculture issues the crop report, showing the State of the average prospect for crops to be as follows: Tobacco, 95,6-35; peanuts, 112 3-10; wheat 97 1-2; apples, 77 1-2; peaches, 84 1-2. Representative peanut growing counties show a marked increase; for instance, Bertie, 115; Edgecombe, 120; Nash, 127; Northampton, 113; Pitt, 112 per cent. as compared with last year. Onslow shows 100.

The State Board of Agriculture as trustees of the A. & M. College, completed its work to-day apportioning $56,000 for next year, and has elected Prof. D. H. Hill, son of General Hill, of the Confederate Army, vice-president, to assist President Winston in his duties. An additional instructorship has been added in horticulture, agriculture, botany and electrical engineering. The trusees declined to raise the price of board from $8, but increased the tuition from $20 to $30. President Winston is directed to secure a successor to Capt. Phelps, as commandant, preferably a young North Carolinian in the active army service.

Raleigh Lodge of Masons, No. 500, to-night elected Governor R. B. Glenn to his first Masonic office, that of Junior Warden. Governor Glenn was made a Master Mason just a few days before he was inaugurated governor. He has since advanced until he is to be intiated in a few days into the Commandery.

TWO BROTHERS KILLED.

Shot By Man Whom They Attacked With Knives.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Atlanta, Ga., June 2.—A special to the Journal from Blue Ridge, Ga., says J. L. Galloway, tax collector of Fannin county, and his brother, George Galloway, were killed on an excursion train near McCays, Tenn., early today by a man named Ewing, who was an officer of the company on the train. The cause of the trouble is not known. An eye witness reports that J. L. Galloway struck Ewing and George Galloway interfered in the fight which followed. The Galloways drew their knives and Ewing drew his revolver, resulting in the instant death of J. L. Galloway. His brother died about an hour later. Ewing was cut seriously but it is notk nown whether his wounds will prove fatal.

NORTH CAROLINIAN CONFESSES.

Stole $5,000 Worth of Land Warrants From Government.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Washington, June 2.—Lewis R. Smith, of North Carolina, formerly an employee in the general land office, was indicted to-day by the grand jury of the District of Columbia on a charge of abstracting and selling thirty land warrants. Smith was employed in the land office from July 1, 1901, to July 6, 1904, and it was during this time that the warrants were taken. He confessed the theft when confronted with the evidence against him. The warrants taken were worth about $5,000.

BATTLE HORRORS COME TO LIGHT

WOUNDED THROWN IN SEA

Battleships and Armoured Cruisers Sunk By Shell Fire—Causes of Russian Defeat—Japan's Offensive Capabilities.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

Tokio, June 2.—10:30 A. M.—Admiral Togo telegraphing yesterday says:

"The ships sent northward to search for Russian ships returned yesterday. The Cruisers Iwate and Yakumo and other vessels sent sothward to find Russian ships returned to-day. They thoroughly searched the Shanghai course from Tsushima and vicinity, but on both sides, found no trace of the Russians."

Admiral Shimaura on board th cruiser Iwate reports: During the battle on May 27th, at 3:07 P. M. the cruiser Iwate vigorously attacked the protected cruiser Jemtchug at a tance of three thousand metres. The Jemtchug sank in one minute. The loss of the Jemtchug is therefore confirmed. During the engagement fire broke out on the Jemtchug and smoke concealed the hull of the vessel, consequently the remainder of our fleet were unable to see the ship.

Will Have Her Own Way With Russia.

Tokio, June 2.—Noon.—With the destruction of Russia's naval power interest is returning to military operations on land. Togo's victory tremendously alters the military situation and removes all limits of offensive operations against Russia's maritime provinces. It is now possible to effectively close Vladivostok, seize Sakhalin, the mouth of the Amur river, Kamtchatka and any point between the Tumen river and the Arctic Circle that Japan may desire.

A foreign military observer, discussing the question with the correspondent of the Associated Press says:

"Togo's victory may drive Russia away from the Pacific coast of Asia. Japan now has a free hand in Russia's maritime provinces and her offensive capability is unlimited. Nothing bars the way except the Russian force at Vladivostok whose speedy isolation is possible. The Amur river is open to Japan and Russia's defensive capability is now entirely limited to the capacity of the Chinese-Siberian railway."

Causes of Rojestvensky's Defeat.

Tokio, June 2.—Noon.— The cardinal causes of Rojestvensky's defeat have been the subject of general discussion here. One Japanese expert gives the following analysis:

"First, an imperfect reconnaissance and incomplete, faulty and misleading intelligence.

"Second—An inperfect battle formation which indicated that Rojestvensky did not expect to meet Togo off Tsushima.

"Third—The weather, the direction of the wind and the sunlight were unfavorable to the Russians, Togo having the sun behind him and firing with the wind, while the Russians had the sunlight in their eyes and fired against the wind.

"Fourth—The Russians wasted their ammunition and eventually ran short. It is believed that the surrender of Nebogatoff was necessary because his ammunition had been expended.

Some experts criticise Rojestvensky for essaying the Tsushima channel. Others uphold him, saying that his only chance lay in going through that channel. The impression prevails that Rojestvensky was totally unaware of the presence of Togo's entire fleet off Tsushima. Many believe that it was necessary for Togo to take a station at a pivotal point, from which point it would be possible to intercept the Russians entering either Tsushima, Tsugaru or Soya Channels. Calculations placed this pivotal point on the West coast, near the western entrance of Tsugaru channel. Togo's real whereabouts were known to many Japanese, but the secret was successfully guarded; another evample of the willingness and ability of the Japanese to preserve military secrets. Leaving aside the questions of preparedness and superior conditions the superiority of the Japanese personnel fresh from fifteen months successful campaigning under all possible conditions must be taken into consideration. Many ascribe the victory entirely to the superior marksmanship of the Japanese. Togo realizing that it would probably be necessary to fight in the open sea, gave his crews long training in firing during rough weather with a heavy wind blowing and the ships rolling. When the hostile fleets met, the superiority of the Japanese immediately became evident. The sinking of battleships and armored cruisers by shell fire testifies to the dead accuracy of the Japanese guns and destroys the theory that it is impossible to sink such ships by shell-fire.

The attitude of Japanese naval men towards victory is curious. Togo's message to the Emperor saying that the victory was the result of the Emperor's superhuman influence, strikes the keynote of the navy's attitude. The officers openly say that the marvelous result obtained was impossible by mere human achievement alone.

shell marked, and many of her guns are smashed and dismounted.

Disgraceful Conduct.

London, June 3.—The Tokio correspondent of the Daily Telgraph again sends interesting additional details of the naval battle, received from Moji, Sasebo and other points.

It is stated that when Rear Admiral Nebogatoff surrendered the Russians hoisted red flags on their topmasts, with Russian flags below them. The crews were drawn up in parade order on the decks and some of the sailors were waiving white flags. The whole affair, the dispatch says, was a "contemptible spectacle."

The Sasebo correspondent says that when the Japanese boarded the torpedo boat destroyer Bedovi after completely disabling her, Admiral Rojestvensky was the last man to be discovered. He was hiding at the bottom of the destroyer and was bleeding freely from many wounds. The correspondent goes on to say:

"It is understood that Admiral Nebogatoff, who is grateful for the kind treatment given him by order of the Mikado, will be allowed to proceed home within a few days. His surrender was disgraceful and unaccountable. An examination of his ships shows that, though the guns were rusty and the bottoms of the vessels covered with seaweed, there was no lack of fighting resources. There were heaps of ammunition and no trace of damage by the Japanese shells.

The crew of the cruiser Ural describe how three successive 11-inch shells completely disabled the vessel and sent her to the bottom inside of forty minutes. All stories the Telegraph's correspondents say, contrast the accuracy of the Japanese gunnery with the wild firing of the Russians whow ere outfought and out maneuvred at all points. It is stated that Admiral Togo on the night before the battle when he knew from his scouts that the Russians would be Tsu Island the following morning and knowing that all his preparations were complete, slept soundly.

To Commerorate Battle.

Tokio, June 2.—4:30 P. M.—In response to thousands of suggestions and inquiries received, the Navy Department has decided to erect an enormous light house on Okino Island as a monument to commemorate Admiral Togo's great naval victory over the Russian fleet in the battle of Sea of Japan. It is planned to have the light show for a distance of eighty miles, covering almost the entirely scene of the battle.

Rumors of Treachery.

St. Petersburg, June 2.—All censorship is now removed from foreign dispatches and the people are appalled at the horrible stories of slaughter on board the Russian ships. The admiralty has not yet been able to estimate even approximately from the foreign advices the loss of men, but as the ships were over rather than under manned the total will be greater than the ordinary complement of the vessels would indicate and probably will exceed ten thousand if only about four thousand were saved.

Ugly stories are circulating in this city of the demoralization and even treachery of the crews of several of the Russian ships during the battle and it is even said that the crew of the battleship Orel bound their officers and hoisted the white flag. The origin of these stories which are discredited by all naval men here cannot be traced as the only direct information comes from Japan but doubtless they are based on the trouble among the crew of the Orel before her departure for the Far East. She was sunk at her dock before she left Croonstadt and later at Libau the crew were mutinous. Indignation against Rear Admiral Nebogatoff is growing. The epithets, "coward" and "traitor" are coupled with his name especially since the receipt of the Tokio dispatches showing that his surrender was not in the heat of battle but with the land close under his lee to which his crews could have escaped after the destruction of the ships.

Japs Threaten Shanghai.

London, June 3.—According to dispatches from Shanghai, the Japanese are preparing an expedition for the Island of Sakhalin and have threatened to send a fleet to Shanghai to compel the observance of neutrality with regard to the Russian vessels there. The threat, the dispatches say, has induced the Russian consul to consent that the vessel be interned.

Land Battle is On.

St. Petersburg, June 2.—General Linevitch in a dispatch to Emperor Nicholas dated May 21 said:

"On May 29th the Japanese began an advance and attacked our troops in the vlley of the Tain river about three miles beyond Fenshu pass which remained in our hands."

Peace to Be Left to the People.

St. Petersburg, June 2.—Although confirmation is lacking the Associated Press again hears on very high authority that Emperor Nicholas has resolved to follow the ancient traditions of the House of Romanoff and summon a zemsky sobor to meet in the ancient capitol of Moscow, to decide on peace or war and determine the form and the prerogatives of the future Russian parliament.

Attempts during the afternoon to secure confirmation in court circles of the report that the Emperor had decided to summon a zemsky sobor met with the positive assertion that a definite decision had been reached.

ROTTENNESS IN NE.. ORLEANS.

Police Department Paid to Protect Tenderloin Interests.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

New Orleans, June 2.—Inspector John Journee, head of the New Orleans Police Department, was to-day dismissed from the service as a result of an investigation of charges filed against him. At the trial to-day, Isaac Slumsky testified to the existence of a club supported by tenderloin interests which paid $200 a month to the police for protection. Among other things the clubs, he said, was engaged in brining women here from other cities for immoral purposes.

Inspector Journee admitted that these charges had been brought to his attention during his administration. Assistant District Attorney Westerfield testified to the making of affidavits against more than a hundred lottery shops, the information of which came to him from persons outside of the Police Department. Inspector Journee protested against the trial on the ground that the case against him had been prejudged.

At the conclusion of the testimony the Board declared Journee guilty of incompetency, and dismissed him from the force. Former Recorder E. S. Whitaker was elected to succeed him, and at once took charge of the Police Department.

TURKE. AND SERVIA MAY FIGHT.

Latter Power May Recall Her Minister from Constantinople.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

Constantinople, June 2.—Servia has notified Turkey that she will recall her minister from Constantinople unless satisfaction is given by June 12th for the recent violation of the Servian consulate at Monastir (Macedonia).

It appears that the local police searched the consulate and seized certain papers. Servia demands the dismissal and further punishment of the Chief of Police, and that an official visit be paid to the Consulate by the Governor of Monastir, with an expression of regret on the part of the government for the occurrence.

BLOW FOR PEACE IN THE FAR EAST

President Roosevelt Declares That Russia Has No Chance to Win

CONFERENCE WITH CASSINI

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Washington, June 2.—The President to-day struck a blow for peace in the Far East. In a conference at the White House this afternoon with Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador, the President expressed the earnest hope that Russia would forthwith conclude peace with Japan. Prolongation of the war, he believes, will not result in victory for the Russian arms and can only serve to increase Japan's demands and render more difficult the drafting of a treaty of yeace which the Czar as well as the Mikado can sign. The President spoke, he said, as the friend of Russia, no less than of Japan, and on behalf not only of the Washington government, but in the interest of humanity. The President informed the Ambassador that in expressing hope for an early peace he voiced not only his strong personal sentiments and those of his government, but he believed these were held by all of the powers. His opinion was that it would be a mistake for Russia to continue the war. In addition to the suffering entailed by the naval conflict he did not believe that Russia has anything to win in prolonging hostilities. The President did not enter into details, but the personal character of the conversation, and his long acquaintance with Count Cassini enabled him to talk plainly regarding the decisive character of the Japanese Victories.

What Japan's probable peace terms would be the President was wholly unable to say, but he did not hesitate to express the opinion that difficult as these conditions might prove in the light of such a victory as that gained in the Korean Straits, they would increase in severity with every day that a state of war continued. Unless Russia has substantial hope of administering a decisive defeat to Japan in this war, the President believed it would inure to the interests of the Petersburg government to conclude peace at once.

Having received no word from his government since the annihilation of Rojestvensky's fleet, save the brief official dispatches telling of the engagament, Count Cassini was unable to do more than to give the President his own personal opinions on the situation. The Ambassador was deeply touched by the sincere cordiality of his reception and the frank and friendly manner in which the President spoke. He could not see, however, that there was anything in the present situation, unfortunate as it undoubtedly was for his government, which necessitated Russia's suing for peace.

As to territory, he pointed out that China and not Russia had been the loser, for even Port Arthur was held only under lease. On the sea Russia had nothing more to lose, he said. It was the Ambassador's firm opinion that this was not "the psychological moment," in which to discuss peace with Japan. Whatever may be the ultimate decision of his government, he took the ground that Russia could lose nothing, either by waiting or by continuing the war on land. There was hope yet of a victory for the Russian arms, it was suggested, and in any event Russia had not yet lost one foot of territory nor was the Russian frontier endangered.

The Ambassador pointed out that there was not the slightest official intimation from any source as to Japan's probable terms and these demands as stated unofficially were "altogether impossible." If Japan's terms should prove anything like as severe as they have been reported it was the Ambassador's opinion that Russia could advantageously continue the war indefinitely and eventually win a victory on land. That his government would so decide he did not wish to predict, but at last accounts the Emperor was for a continuation of the war.

THEATRE DESTROYED BY FIRE.

The Avenue Burned and Grand Opera House Damaged.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Pittsburg, June 2.—One of the most exciting and spectacular fires that has visited Pittsburg in recent years broke out in the Avenue Theatre shortly before 4 o'clock this afternoon and before it was subdued, had completely destroyed the Avenue and partially wrecked the Grand Opera house adjoining, but fortunately no panic resulted and no lives were lost. The loss will reach $150,000 fully insured. The cause of the fire is believed to be traceable to crossed wires. The Avenue had been closed for several weeks and not one was in the building except the watchman, but in the opera house a matinee performance was in progress when the fire broke out. The house was about half filled but through the prompt and systematic work of employees, the audience was gotten out without the semblance of a panic, indeed, the majority did not know there was a fire until they had reached the street.

Several women fainted when they came to realize what might have happened.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

Vienna, June 2.—It is reported that a serious fight has taken place between Servian and Bulgarian bands near Kitshewo, Macedonia. Twenty Bulgarians and twelve Servians were killed and many on each side wounded. The Servians captured the Bulgarian leader who is alleged to be a captain in the Bulgarian army.

GOVERNMENT COTTON REPORT.

Reduction of Acreage 11.1-4 Per Cent. Crop Condition, 77.2.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Washington, June 2.—The following bulletin on the condition of the cotton crop was issued by the Department of Agriculture to-day.

Returns to the chief of the bureau of statistics of the Department of Agriculture shows the total area planted in cotton in the United States up to May 25th to be about 28,120,000 acres, a decrease of about 3,610,000 acres, or 11.4 per cent. from the total acreage planted last year.

The average condition of the growing crop on May 25th was 77.2 as compared with 83 on May 26, 1904; 74.1 at the corresponding date of 1903, and a ten-year average of 85.3.

The percentage of decrease in acreage in the different States (the comparison being with the total area plnated last season) is as follows: Virginia, 13; North Carolina, 10; South Carolina, 11; Georgia, 11; Florida, 10; Alabama, 8; Mississippi, 12; Louisiana, 14; Texas, 12; Arkansas, 15; Tennessee, 10; Missouri, 14; Oklahoma, 11; Indian Territory, 10.

The condition of the corp by States on May 25th was as follows: Virginia, 87; North Carolina, 83; South Carolina, 78; Georgia, 84; Florida, 88; Alabama, 87; Mississippi, 73; Louisiana, 73; Texas, 69; Arkansas, 73; Tennessee, 86; Missouri, 84; Ofilahoma, 88; Indian Territory, 81.

Effect on the Market.

New York, June 2.—The government's first monthly cotton report of the season giving the average at 11.4 per cent. was preceded and followed by active selling and excitement on the Cotton Exchange to-day. The market was weak from the opening under active pressure and before the report was issued July sold off to 8.15; October 8.22, and December 8.34. Immediately following the announcement of the government figures there was great confusion on the Cotton Exchange due to the New Orleans market, which shot up over 20 points, causing a rally of 6 to 8 points here. This, however, was subsequently lost. It developed later that the average condition was received in New Orleans at 75.2 instead of 77.2. July sold off to 8.10 in the New York market, a decline from last night of about 24 points and lost one-half a cent from the high point of last Wednesday. The market closed steady in tone, but at just about the lowest prices, a net decline of 31 to 34 points. Sales were estimated at 750,000 bales.

Cotton Association Surprised.

Atlanta, Ga., June 2.—Owing to a difference of 7 per cent. in the government report issued to-day and the Southern Cotton Association report issued May 31 on the reduction in cotton acreage, the Southern Cotton Association has taken action looking to a verification of the two reports.

Secretary Cheatham, of the Southern Cotton Association, has been instructed to take up the matter with government officials and today addressed the following letter to Statistician John Hyde at Washington calling on him for the sources of the government's information:

Atlanta, Ga., June 2, 1905.

"Mr. John Hyde, Statistician,
Washington, D. C.

"Dear Sir: The government report on reduction in cotton acreage for 1905 issued from your department at noon today shows a difference of 7 per cent. less than the report issued by the Southern Cotton Association at New Orleans, La., May 31. The Association has been most painstaking and conservative in its report and desires to verify it with that of the government, and will ask that you forward to its office a copy of the detailed sources from which your report was made and the manner of its final tabulation.

"The association also stands ready to furnish your department with similar information, giving names and postoffice addresses of the 17,000 reporters and business in which they are engaged, from which reports the association tabulated its final estimate.

"A prompt compliance of your office with this request will very much oblige

"Yours truly,
"RICHARD CHEATHAM,
"Secretary Southern Cotton Association."

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Boston, Mass., June 2.—A bill in equity against President Harry C. Pulliam and the various umpires of the National League of baseball teams was filed in the Superior Court here today by John J. McGraw, playing manager of the New York team of the New York National League in which the latter seeks to have the defendants enjoined from imposing a fine on him for alleged misconduct and preventing him from acting as manager of his team on the field. Justice Sheldon issues an order of notice returnable on Monday and a hearing will be held.

At Lodez, Russian Poland, there was a renewal of rioting yesterday morning. A crowd of people stoned a detachment of Cossacks, and the latter fired, killing two persons and wounding others.
